

The Bedford Park Summer Exhibition presents:

Art in a Time of Pandemic

All local professional, amateur and child artists are invited to exhibit.

Hand-in on Sunday 6th June between 2 – 4pm

St Michael and All Angel's Church, Bedford Park, W4 1TT

We cannot put on the exhibition in the way that we usually do. But art has meant a great deal to us during lockdown, and we want to celebrate people's creativity in an exhibition in the Church, and on-line.

Please fill in the attached entry form to accompany your work

The first Bedford Park Summer Exhibition was held in 1966 in order to raise funds to protect Bedford Park from demolition. The exhibition shows a wide range of art from professional and amateur artists who live locally or have a connection with the festival. Nowadays the festival raises money for the church and the charities it supports, which in 2020 are The Upper Room – a local project providing services for homeless people; West London Welcome - a local drop-in centre for refugees; and Waterharvest which enables rural communities in India to collect and use monsoon rains.
